

2010 Arctic Cat CFR800 Keeps Winning and Grinning

Worlds Fastest Snowmobile Update

Thief River Falls, Minn. (October 15, 2009) – Weekend after weekend, D&D pilot, Scott Moser proves that his CFR800 is definitely the Worlds Fastest 800 in grass drag racing.

Moser of Lowville, N.Y., once again beat up on the competition with wins in both the Stock 700 (F7) and Stock 800 (CFR) classes at the Epping, NH grass drags.

As well, Team Arctic racer, Bernard Rodrique took first place, aboard another one of the World's Fastest Snowmobiles, a Stock Crossfire 1000.

“We couldn't be prouder of our racers and the 160-unmatched horsepower of the new 800HO engine. Line 'em up and knock 'em down has never been truer,” said Mike Kloety, Team Arctic Race Manager.
